Foreword

The Publications Staff presents Opus 9 as a record of achievements, occasions, and personalities from the academic year 1948-49.

We should like Opus 9 to be an especial reminder of the last class of Seniors to be graduated from Arthur Jordan Conservatory of Music, and a forethought to the first graduating class from Jordan College of Music in 1950.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Zeta Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota was installed in 1911 at the Indiana College of Music. Pat Dunten is the President of the Chapter of S. A. I. at Jordan Conservatory.

One of the most successful activities Sigma Alpha sponsored during the school year was the S. A. I. Bazaar held April 1. Money received from the various booths was added to the scholarship fund.

In the spring Sigma Alpha Iota presented an American Contemporary Composers' program, featuring Patti Browne, soprano; Ruth Dye, pianist and the Jordan Conservatory Orchestra conducted by David Hughes.

April 26 Sigma Alpha Iota initiated ten girls at the Women's Department Club.

Phi Sigma Mu

Eta Chapter of Phi Sigma Mu, national honorary fraternity for men and women in music education, had a very successful year. The Fraternity pledged and initiated twenty-one members, three of whom are faculty members.

Phi Sigma Mu celebrated its Founders Day on December 12 by having a dinner. A program given by the pledges was enjoyed by everyone.

They ended the year by having a picnic for all members and their friends.

Officers for this year were:

President—ETTA JEAN WILSON

Vice-President—CHARLES SMITH

Recording Secretary—BEVERLY SELLERS

Corresponding Secretary—BARBARA GRUBBS

Historian—PHYLLIS KOEHLER

Mu Phi Epsilon

Kappa Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national professional music sorority has enjoyed participating in campus activities this year.

Founder's Day was celebrated on Saturday, November 13, at the Riley Hotel. Eight girls were initiated in the beautiful and inspirational ceremony. The active chapter, alumnae chapter, and patroness club enjoyed a dinner following initiation.

One of the most interesting events of the year was the Noel Festival which was planned along with Phi Sigma Mu, Sigma Alpha Iota, and Phi Mu Alpha.

Every year Kappa Chapter sponsors auditions for an open scholarship award. The recipient of the award this year was Miss Audrey Marshall, a member of Sigma Alpha Iota.

Harrison Dormitory

The Dean of Women, Mrs. Ruth Woodworth, affectionately known as Mrs. Woodie, reigns as house mother of the historic Harrison Dormitory located on the campus proper. The staff of officers is composed of JoAnn Burr, Eleanor Reed, Carol Alpine and Elaine Buck.

The girls have had a lot of fun in the Harrison Dormitory this year. In December the gala spirit of Christmas parties lightened the load of school duties, the girls caroled and exchanged gifts. The Valentine's Day party was one of our most successful get-togethers. On May 15 the girls of the dormitory honored their mothers at a dinner followed by a reception in the Harrison Home.

Delaware Dormitory

The Delaware Dormitory, the largest of the women's residences, houses twenty-two girls, and is located at 1346 N. Delaware.

Mrs. Mary South, the house mother, Marge North, the house president and a house committee represent and manage the house with flexible rules which permit the girls to enjoy the independence of home life.

This year has been one which the girls will always remember in later years. The largest events of the year were the Christmas party, which the girls celebrated with the old-fashioned yuletide spirit, and the Mother's Day Tea which was held in May. Other parties which the dormitory had were at Halloween and St. Valentine's Day.

We are proud that our dormitory is represented in all departments offered by Jordan. We attribute the success of our dormitory to the initiative shown by the girls in an attempt to obtain a well rounded campus life.

Pennsylvania Dormitory

The Pennsylvania Dormitory, smallest of the three residences, is located at 1213 North Pennsylvania Street and houses twelve girls.

Mrs. Hazel Whittenberger, house mother of the Pennsylvania Dormitory, came to Jordan in January, 1949. The house committee for the dormitory consists of: Freda Zambara, President; Carol Sauders, Mary Masters and Betty Phillips.

Many parties were given this year. The dormitory had a Halloween, Christmas and Spring party. Each month the dormitory has a party for the girls whose birthday is that month.

Several of the girls have appeared on Jordan's radio program and as soloists with Chorale and Orchestra.

KATHERINE BECK, EDITOR, "OPUS 9"
CLAUDE PARSONS, EDITOR, "YOU'RE COVERED"

Near the latter part of October, 1948, several students met at 1204 North Delaware Street and organized the staff of the Jordan newspaper, "You're Covered," for 1948-49.

At that meeting, presided over by Claude Parsons, Editor-in-Chief, an active constitution was adopted by the group. Miss Dorothy Woods was again chosen faculty advisor to the newspaper.

The publication this year was mimeographed weekly, excepting holiday vacations, by members of the staff. Circulation of the newspaper included an exchange list of fifteen Indiana colleges and universities.

May Festival

The May Music Festival, Jordan's biggest concert event of the year, was held on May 16, 17 and 18 at Caleb Mills Hall.

The opening night's presentation was the comic opera, "Martha", by Von Flotow, with a cast and chorus of sixty. Directed by Leola Turner, the opera was sung in English with an orchestral accompaniment, conducted by David Hughes. Brilliant costumes and scenery added to the pageantry. Leading roles were sung by Patti Browne, Carol Sauders, James Alverson and Thomas Brownell.

The second evening of the Festival featured the Concert Band, conducted by Nilo Hovey, which presented a variety of enjoyable numbers. The Chorale, directed by Dr. Sunderman gave a splendid rendition of Mozart's "Requiem Mass" with a quartet consisting of Naomi Pryor, Helen Shadle, Farrell Scott and James Tippey. Accompanying the Chorale was Audrey Marshall.

The Festival concluded with a program by the Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Davis Hughes, and the Ballet, directed by Eileen Poston. The orchestral part of the program featured June Sparks, violinist, in "Symphonie Espangole," by Lalo; Audrey Marshall, pianist, in the "Allegro Marcato" from Grieg's "Piano Concerto in A minor"; and Beldon Leonard conducting his own composition, "Poeme Romantique."

The Ballet group presented "Extace"; "The Emperor Waltz" (Strauss); A Mexican folk dance, "Las Espuelas"; and the "white ballet," "Les Sylphides," with the music of Chopin.

The eight remaining coed-semi-finalists in the contest were Patti Browne, Gary; Doris Odell, Michigantown; June Rodousakis, Lewisburg, West Virginia; Dorothy McConville, Bloomington; Carol Sauders, Fort Wayne; Laura Hungerford, Rushville; JoAnn Burr, Adrian, Michigan, and Marjorie North, Portland.

Judges for the beauty pageant were Miss Lois Edgold, Indianapolis, director of Patricia Stevens School; Miss Mary Lou Nelson, L. S. Ayres and Co., fashion bureau; Miss Jeanne Goulett, Jeanne's Fashion Service, and C. L. Kirk, photographer.

BASKETBALL TEAM

The 1948-49 basketball team at Jordan, coached by Paul Voisard, Y. M. C. A. instructor, closed its season with a record of seven wins against twelve losses.

The team held very few practice sessions during the season because of the lack of a permanent home floor. Nevertheless the squad reached the semi-finals of the Y. M. C. A. pre-season tourney and played in the College League at the Y. M. C. A. each week.

Keith Weber, a graduate of Tech High School, led his team-mates in scoring during the season. Other members of the 1948-49 squad were: Clint Bartman, Don Kissling and Lester Powell all of Louisville, Ky.; Bill Bielski, East Chicago; Charles Byfield, Winamac; Kenny Dooley and John Hedges, Columbus; Claude Parsons, James Christie, Don May, Wilburn Elrod, Wilbur Daringer, Tony Holevas and Bill Schmalfeldt all of Indianapolis.

Coach Paul Voisard should be congratulated for his determined effort and all members of the team for their fine teamwork and good sportsmanship throughout the entire season.

The Jordan ping-pong singles tourney, which was held in the basement of the Harrison Dormitory on April 26, 27 and 28, was sponsored jointly by "You're Covered" and the Snack Bar, under the auspices of the Student Council. Bill Bielski, freshman from East Chicago, defeated Don White for the championship title.
